Program Report on “Ethical Hacking”

The Ethical Hacking Workshop, a dynamic and insightful program, delved into the realm of cyber security at our institution. Conducted by industry experts, it provided hands-on experience in ethical hacking techniques, emphasizing responsible and legal applications. Participants gained knowledge about vulnerability assessment, penetration testing, and securing systems. Interactive sessions fostered a practical understanding of cyber security challenges. The workshop, well-received by attendees, cultivated a sense of ethical responsibility in the digital landscape. As cyber threats evolve, this program equipped participants with valuable skills to contribute to robust cyber security measures, ensuring a safer and more resilient digital environment for all.

Report on “Awareness Program on AIDS”

NSS students from MTCET Peddapally, in collaboration with the Lions Club, organized a special “Awareness Program on AIDS” at Peddakalwala village. The dedicated NSS volunteers from various departments actively participated in spreading awareness about AIDS prevention in nearby villages.

The program, led by the Program Officer (PO) and coordinated by the NSS Coordinator, aimed to educate and create awareness on the importance of preventing AIDS. NSS volunteers visited different villages armed with informative pamphlets and impactful placards. The collaboration with the Lions Club enhanced the reach and impact of the awareness campaign.

Report on "Awareness Program on Youth Protection"

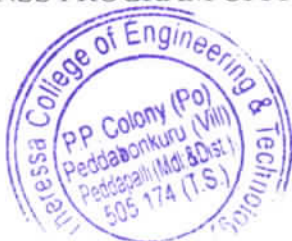

The "Awareness Program on Youth Protection" successfully unfolded at Vikas Junior College, prioritizing the safety and well-being of young individuals. Held with community engagement at its core, the program disseminated vital information on recognizing and preventing risks faced by the youth. Interactive workshops and expert-led discussions heightened awareness of potential dangers, fostering a collective commitment to safeguarding the younger generation. Emphasizing the importance of digital literacy and mental health, the program equipped participants with the knowledge and tools to create a secure environment. With a focus on proactive measures, the initiative contributed to building a resilient community dedicated to nurturing and protecting the well-being of its youth.

Report on "Stay Home Stay Safe"

"Stay Home, Stay Safe" online program conducted by the NSS unit of MTEC. Such initiatives play a crucial role in promoting safety and well-being, especially during challenging times like the COVID-19 pandemic. Conducting an online program reflects adaptability and a commitment to continuing community service in the face of changing circumstances.

The "Stay Home, Stay Safe" theme suggests a focus on encouraging individuals to adhere to safety guidelines, emphasizing the importance of staying at home to prevent the spread of the virus. Online programs are an effective way to disseminate information, engage participants, and foster a sense of community even in a virtual environment.. It's encouraging to see organizations like the NSS unit of MTEC adapting to the current circumstances and finding innovative ways to contribute to the welfare of the community.
