PROGRAM REPORT

Name of the Event: Language and Communication Skills

Date: 15/11/2020

Resource Person: Mr. A.Sathish

Trainer In English Sills

Name of Co-ordinator: Mrs.K.Srilaxmi

Assistant Professor

H&S DEPT

Number of Student Attended: 168 students

Venue: Seminar Hall, Mother Theresa College Of Engineering and Technology –Peddapalli.

Objectives:

1. Explain why good communication skills are important.
2. What makes such skills hard to master?
3. Describe models and methods of communication.
4. Understand how preconceptions and limited perception interfere with communication
5. Define Nonverbal Communication.

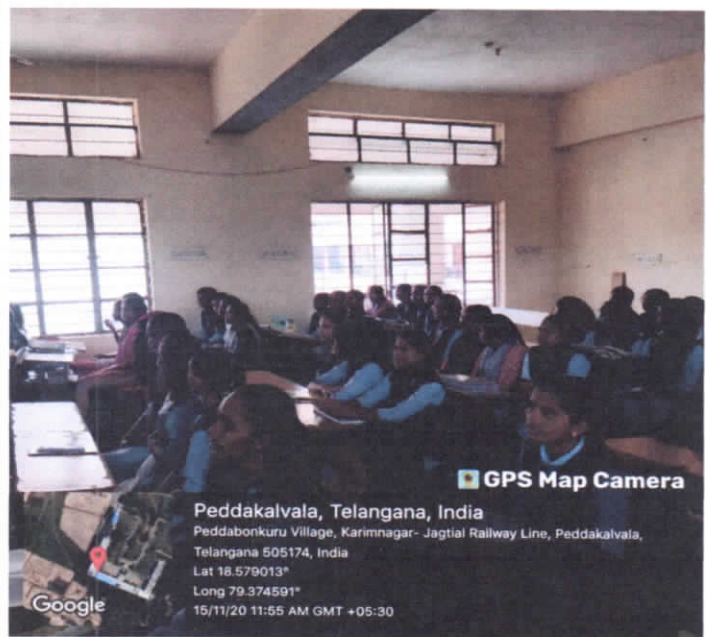

The Department of Humanities and Sciences taught English to B.tech students in the academic year 2020-21 through English Language Labs. The main goal of the English Language Lab is to improve vocabulary and also to pay attention to important aspects of language like grammar, pronunciation, intonation, and phonetics. Language Labs are very helpful for improving how well you can speak, Students can have fun practicing their speaking skills in a more realistic way, without the streets of having all the focus on them like in real-life English conversation. This is better than using scripted role-plays or exercises from textbooks. Students learn without being afraid and this helps them to feel more confident and skilled in the language. The lab was conducted from 15/11/2020 during for one day.168 students attended on this day with enthusiasm.

PROGRAM REPORT

Name Of the Event: Language and Communication Skills

Date: 08/03/2021

Resource Person: Mrs.Kalyani

Trainer In Language Skills

Name of Co-coordinator:Mr. K.Sadanandam (EEE DEPT)

Number of Student Attended: 319 students

Venue: Seminar Hall, Mother Theresa College Of Engineering and Technology –Peddapalli.

Objectives:

5. Explain why good communication skills are important.
6. Pinpoint what makes such skills hard to master.
7. Describe models and methods of communication.
8. Understand how preconceptions and limited perception interfere with communication
9. Define Nonverbal Communication.

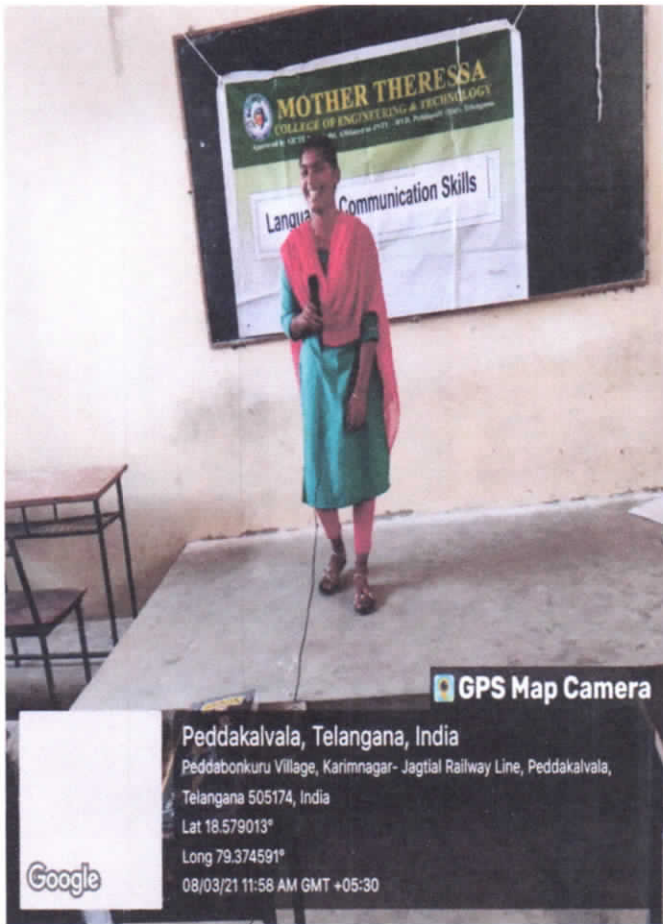

The Department of Humanities and Sciences taught English to B.tech students in the academic year 2020-21 through English Language Labs. The main goal of the English Language Lab is to improve vocabulary and also to pay attention to important aspects of language like grammar, pronunciation, intonation, and phonetics. Language Labs are very helpful for improving how well you can speak; Students can have fun practicing their speaking skills in a more realistic way, without the stress of having all the focus on them like in real-life English conversation. This is better than using scripted role-plays or exercises from textbooks. Students learn without being afraid and this helps them to feel more confident and skilled in the language. The lab was conducted on 8/3/2021 for one day. 319 students attended this session with enthusiasm.

Resource Person: Mr.Anjaneyulu

Skills Trainer

Name of Co-coordinator Mr.A.JAYANTH REDDY Assistant Professor

H&S DEPT

Number of Student Attended: 273 Students

Venue: Seminar Hall, Mother Theresa College Of Engineering and Technology –Peddapalli.

Objectives:

01. Explain why good communication skills are important.
02. Pinpoint what makes such skills hard to master.
03. Describe models and methods of communication.
04. Understand how preconceptions and limited perception interfere with communication
- 05 Define Nonverbal Communication.

The Department of Humanities and Sciences taught English to B.tech students in the academic year 2020-21 through English Language Labs. The main goal of the English Language Lab is to improve vocabulary and also to pay attention to important aspects of language like grammar, pronunciation, intonation, and phonetics. Language Labs are very helpful for improving how well you can speak; Students can have fun practicing their speaking skills in a more realistic way, without the stress of having all the focus on them like in real-life English conversation. This is better than using scripted
